2. Read the text about Bournemouth and answer the questions. (5 points)

Bournemouth is a popular tourist destination on the south coast of England. It is also the largest town on the English south coast between Southampton and Plymouth. It has a population of about 170,000.

In 1800 no-one lived at mouth of the Bourne River and the only regular visitors were a few fishermen. Bournemouth was founded by Lewis Tregonwell in 1812. During the 19th century the town continued to develop. Nowadays it is a regional centre of education and business.

Bournemouth is famous for many things but most of the tourists come from all the United Kingdom to enjoy its beaches. Tourists usually stay in one of the many spa hotels that have been built since 1885. Many important visitors have stayed in the Royal Bath Hotel, including Oscar Wilde, H. G. Wells, Queen Wilhemina of the Netherlands or Zimbabwe President Robert Mugabe.

Where is Bournemouth situated?

How many people live in Bournemouth?

When was it founded?

Why is it a tourist centre?
